AI Use Disclosure

AI tools were used during the preparation of this infographic for brainstorming and idea generation, particularly ways to present the chemistry concepts. AI was also used for image editing to help modify and adapt visual elements for the infographic. The final content, design choices, organization, and presentation were reviewed and edited by the student, with the scientific information independently checked against reliable sources.